Relief Requested

19. By this Motion, PREPA seeks entry of an order, substantially in the form of the Proposed Order, further enlarging the time within which PREPA is required to file notices of removal under Bankruptcy Rule 9027(a) through the later of: (i) November 22, 2020, which is 180 days after the current deadline (May 26, 2020); or (ii) such later date prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 9027(a)(2) and (a)(3).

Basis for Relief Requested

20. PROMESA section 306(d) provides for the removal of actions to this Court:

A party may remove any claim or cause of action in a civil action, other than a proceeding before the United States Tax Court or a civil action by a governmental unit to enforce the police or regulatory power of the governmental unit, to the district court for the district in which the civil action is pending, if the district court has jurisdiction of the claim or cause of action under this section.

PROMESA § 306(d).

21. Bankruptcy Rule 9027, which is made applicable to this Title III Case pursuant to PROMESA section 310, sets forth the time period for the filing of notices to remove claims or causes of action. Bankruptcy Rule 9027 provides in pertinent part:

(a)(2) If the claim or cause of action in a civil action is pending when a case under the Code is commenced, a notice of removal may be filed only within the longest of (A) 90 days after the order for relief in the case under the Code, (B) 30 days after entry of an order terminating a stay, if the claim or cause of action in a civil action has been stayed under § 362 of the Code, or (C) 30 days after a trustee qualifies in a chapter 11 reorganization case but not later than 180 days after the order for relief.

- (a)(3) If a claim or cause of action is asserted in another court after commencement of a case under the Code, a notice of removal may be filed with the clerk only within the shorter of (A) 30 days after receipt, through service or otherwise, or a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim or cause of action sought to be removed or (B) 30 days after receipt of the summons if the initial pleading has been filed with the court but not served with the summons.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9027.

22. Bankruptcy Rule 9006 permits the Court to enlarge the period to remove actions provided for by Bankruptcy Rule 9027. Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b) provides in pertinent part:

- (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subdivision, when an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specific period by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of the court, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if the request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) on motion made after the expiration of the specific period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

Id. 9006(b).

23. As shown above, this Court, like many other courts routinely extend the removal period pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006. See Pacor, Inc. v. Higgins, 743 F.2d 984, 996 n.17 (3d Cir. 1984) (stating the court's power to grant an extension of the removal period pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b) is "clear"), overruled on other grounds by Things Remembered, Inc. v. Petrarca, 516 U.S. 124, 134-35 (1995); see also Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., Inc., 251 B.R. 322, 325 (S.D. W.Va. 2000) (noting Bankruptcy Rule 9006 provides authority to enlarge time periods for removing actions under Bankruptcy Rule 9027); Jandous Elec. Constr. Corp. v. City of New York (In re Jandous Elec. Constr. Corp.), 106 B.R. 48, 50 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (finding the period in which to file motion to remove may be expanded pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006);

In re World Fin. Servs. Ctr., Inc., 81 B.R. 33, 39 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 1987) (noting United States Supreme Court intended to give judges the power to enlarge the filing periods under Bankruptcy Rule 9027(a) pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)).³

24. Courts have previously granted the same or even longer relief to that that is requested in this Motion. See, e.g., In re Patriot Coal Corp., Case No. 12-12900 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 5, 2012) (extending the removal deadline with respect to civil actions pending as of the petition date through and including the effective date of any plan of reorganization); In re Charter Commc'ns, Inc., Case No. 09-11435 (JMP) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 17, 2009 (extending removal deadline through plan confirmation); In re Chemtura Corp., Case No. 09-11233 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 16, 2009) (same); In re Frontier Airlines Holdings, Inc., Case No. 08-11298 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 18, 2008) (extending removal deadline through effective date of any plan of reorganization).

25. Cause exists for the Court to further enlarge the time within which PREPA may file notices of removal under Bankruptcy Rule 9027(a). Since the commencement of the Title III Case, PREPA, the Oversight Board, and their respective professionals and advisors have been dedicating a significant amount of their time to working on PREPA's transformation and negotiating and defending a restructuring support agreement, litigating other disputes with PREPA's creditors and various other parties, and facilitating PREPA's transformation process.

26. As of the Petition Date, PREPA was a party in over 300 civil actions, which required a case-by-case analysis to determine the merits of seeking the removal as to each case. Since the last motion further extending the time to file removal notices was filed, PREPA has removed the following three additional actions: (i) UTIER v. Ortiz Vazquez, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00298-LTS; (ii) Irizarry, et al. v. Vazquez, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00412-LTS; and (iii)

³ In cases under title 11 of the United States Code, 28 U.S.C. § 1452 provides the authority for the removal of civil claims and actions. PROMESA section 306(d)(1) tracks the language of 28 U.S.C. § 1452(a).

PREPA v. Vitol Inc., et al., Adv. Proc. No. 19-00453-LTS. PREPA and its professionals are continuing to review the 300-plus civil actions to determine which civil action(s) should be removed. No party is prejudiced by extending the time for the filing of notices to remove claims or causes of action.

27. The circumstances surrounding the current COVID-19 pandemic and the government lockdown have also delayed PREPA's ability to provide, and the Oversight Board's ability to obtain, information necessary for its analysis of the civil actions, some of which is located in physical files at PREPA's offices. In compliance with the Governor's executive order No. 2020-038, PREPA's employees are working remotely through at least June 15, 2020. Such remote work has made it more difficult for PREPA to provide the Oversight Board information necessary to determine which, if any, civil proceedings should be removed to the Title III Court. PREPA and the Oversight Board have continued to review the cases in order to make such determinations; however, the analysis has been delayed multiple times due to pressing matters which have taken precedent, including, as exemplified, hurricanes, earthquakes, debt restructuring, and transformation. As a result, as of the date of this filing, the Oversight Board and PREPA lack complete information to determine which of the remaining proceedings should be removed. Accordingly, and given the number of proceedings, the Oversight Board requires additional time to determine whether PREPA should move any such actions to this Court.

28. Accordingly, PREPA believes cause exists for the Court to enlarge the removal period through and including the later of (i) November 22, 2020, or (ii) any later date prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 9027(a)(2) and (a)(3), to afford PREPA sufficient time to review and analyze the civil actions to which it is a party.⁴

⁴ The current deadline to file notices of removal is May 26, 2020. Pursuant to section III.W of the Tenth Amended Case Management Procedures, ECF No. 8027-1, the filing of this Motion operates to automatically extend the deadline

Certificate of No Objection

29. The relief requested in the Motion may be granted without a hearing if no objection is timely filed, served, and received in accordance with the Eleventh Amended Notice, Case Management and Administrative Procedures [Case No. 17-03283-LTS, ECF No. 11885-1] (the “Case Management Procedures”). The Case Management Procedures state Parties may request relief without a hearing by filing a certificate of no objections (“CNO”), provided that the notice filed with the request for relief includes a statement that the request for relief may be granted and an order entered without a hearing unless a timely objection is made. After the objection deadline has passed, and no objection has been filed or served in accordance Case Management Procedures, PREPA may file a CNO indicating that no objection has been filed or served and submit an order granting the relief requested.

Notice

30. PREPA has provided notice of this Motion to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (b) the indenture trustees and/or agents, as applicable, for PREPA’s bonds; (c) any statutory committee (if any) appointed in this Title III Case; (d) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Puerto Rico; (e) counsel to the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority; (f) the Puerto Rico Department of Justice; and (g) all parties filing a notice of appearance in PREPA’s Title III Case. PREPA submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

until the Court acts on this Motion, without the necessity for a bridge order. See ECF No. 8027-1 (“Under the discretion provided to the Court by Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b), and to forestall the need for a bridge order, unless otherwise provided by the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules, if a motion to extend the time to take any action is filed before the expiration of the period prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, or by Court order, the time shall automatically be extended until the Court acts on the motion, without the necessity for the entry of a bridge order.”).
